

Postcards from the Highway of Life

By Garrison Leykam

Homebound Publications, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Just like vintage postcards capture and share in pictures the memories of a favorite road trip, Postcards from the Highway of Life captures in words the people and places and things that have influenced author Garrison Leykam on the experiential highway of his life. Whether it's contemplating how to handle life's stresses through his musings about a malted milk, lamenting the lost art of letter writing or humorously recalling the potential for pressure cookers to take Sunday dinners airborne, Leykam's Postcards from the Highway of Life is both a rich essay about baby boomer values as well as a wake-up call to preserve an entire generation's identity. Leykam returns readers to the memory of one's favorite diner booth where he serves a menu of life essays that will satiate even the greatest hunger for a return to basic values in today's chaotic world. Postcards From The Highway Of Life is simple, profound wisdom served in heaping portions of nostalgia, memories and the very stuff of what makes life meaningful.
